

Prayer for Financial Abundance

Author, Lezli Goodwin

How good it is to rest in the Truth that Sweet Spirit is all there is. That there is One Truth, One Presence, One Source of All-That-Is. And this One is expressing in, through and as all of Creation. It is deep Love and abiding Peace. It is Prosperity overflowing and never-ending Abundance. It is the ever-givingness of Life. It is all Good.

I recognize that I am an expression of this One, unique, and yet in complete unity with All-That-Is. I am made up of God matter, Divine in my nature. All that I do, all that I am, is Divinity expressing. And as such, I am all that I claim for God -- I am Love and Peace. I am Prosperity at the very core of my being. I am that flowing Abundance, and am constantly experiencing the givingness of Life. I am made in the image of Divine perfection, just exactly as I am. Ease and Grace is the Truth of who I am.

And from this deep understanding of the Truth of my life, I speak my Word now for my flowing Abundance. I recognize the Divine quality of Prosperity showing up in my life as more than enough money to easily meet all my needs and more to share. I see my every bill and debt paid in full, right here, right now. I know that the entire Universe is conspiring for my good, filling my bank account and settling all of my financial responsibilities with Ease and Grace. Any and all thoughts or beliefs in lack, poverty or fear are banished, back into the nothingness from whence they came. I claim for myself only Abundance and Prosperity from this day forth.

I am so thankful to know that the Word I speak is already true in the Mind of God, so it must come forth into the manifest world. I am grateful beyond grateful to know it is so.

And so I release this Word into the Law that is the Creative Medium, knowing it is already done. I let God do God's work. And so it is.
