

Prayer for Faith and Surrender    Author, Lezli Goodwin

There is one Life. This Life is God's Life. This Life is perfect, a beautiful unfoldment of all things Good, expressing as everything that is. It is that still small voice of guidance that always leads to the highest and best. It is Love and Grace, Support and Supply. It is deep Peace, full faith and powerful surrender.

What I know for myself is that God's perfect Life is my life now. I can never be separate from It, for It is the building blocks of everything that I am. The Truth of me is Peace and Grace and Perfect Love. I am built for surrender into faith.

And so I speak my Word for a profound sense of absolute calm and ease in every area of my life. I let go of needing to know the answers, as I am Divinely guided in every moment to perfect right action and right outcome. I easily and effortlessly surrender every question, every relationship and every feeling into the Grace of Sweet Spirit, trusting completely that I am supported and supplied in all things. I lean into my faith, feeling The Beloved in all that I experience. My affairs are run by the Most High, and I am truly blessed.

I give grateful, grateful thanks for this sense of faith, surrender and powerful trust. I am thankful for the beautiful way Spirit graces all of life.

I release this prayer into the perfect activity of the Law of Mind with a complete sense of trust that it is done now. It is good. And so it is.
